VISITING?

We’re glad you’ve joined us today as we speak to God in our prayers and our praise, and as we listen together as He speaks to us through His Word, the Bible. If this is your first time here, we extend to you a warm welcome. We are thankful that you have chosen to visit with us this morning.

At the conclusion of the service if you have any questions about our church or about becoming a Christian, please speak to our minister or with one of the elders who will be available at the rear of the auditorium.

Thank you for visiting and we hope you will feel welcome enough to come again.

Baptized

March 24, 2024

“Each of you should look not only to your own interests but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled Himself and became obedient to death—even death on the cross!” (Phil. 2:4–8, NIV).

Even though the form of servanthood is what Jesus chose, and even though His life was marked by willing humiliation, inevitably, there were moments in His ministry where the glory of His deity could not be concealed. It was these moments that inspired John to write, “And we beheld His glory” (John 1:14)..... as we too will see one day.
