November 19, 2023

In our family, before we dig in for our Thanksgiving feast, we go around the table and each person lights a candle and give thanks for something in their life. Perhaps you do the same thing in your family. When things are going well, it's not difficult to be thankful. How about when things are not going well? 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 says, "Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." Easier said than done. Perhaps you've lost a loved one recently, received a cancer diagnosis or lost a job and are struggling to make ends meet. One of the best examples of expressing thankfulness in dire circumstances is found in Acts 16:25 – "And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises unto God." Where were Paul and Silas at the time? In prison.

You may be in a situation where what you are going through feels like your own personal prison and singing praises is probably the last thing on your mind. God understands what you are going through. He loves you, will never abandon you and wants you to seek Him in all things. So, if you're having trouble being thankful during this Thanksgiving season, be thankful for God and the saving power of His Son, Christ Jesus.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." -Philippians 4:6-7
