What a Friend We Have in Jesus

March 3, 2024

In January 2020, Staci Green's mother, 76-year-old Rosie Minor, was killed in a car collision in DeKalb County, Georgia. The other driver, Nikia Cherry, 37, was traveling 73 miles per hour in a 45-mph zone. Cherry was charged with vehicular homicide, and Staci Green said she was glad to see her suffer. "I was consumed with anger, sadness, loss," Nikia Cherry pleaded guilty to vehicular homicide. She was sentenced to 24 months probation, 240 hours of community service and a $2,500 fine. A civil trial ensued and what happened next caught the attention of many people. During the trial, Staci Green approached Nikia in the courthouse she thought of what her mother would say, and then told Cherry, "I forgive you."
"And when I forgave her, it was like I was reborn again," But for Staci, that was only the first step. Since then, she has gone so far beyond the words "I forgive you," to the actions of "I love you." "She's like a God-momma to me," Nikia Cherry said. "I talk to her every day."
Nikia Cherry lost everything in the crash. She now resides in a motel. Staci has said, "I am committed to her life getting better," "I've helped her with money for food....rent. I was her daughter's Secret Santa. I booked a trip for her to go to Miami for her 40th birthday."
Her attorneys say they've never heard of anything like it.
"Staci didn't have to do that," Nikia Cherry said. Actually, Green says she did have to do all that, or she could have never forgiven herself.
Forgiveness is not just for the recipient – it's also good for your soul!
