But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

- Romans 7:6 -

Sometimes life is a struggle. Zack Conti understands that well. Zach is a student athlete at Eastern Michigan University. He plays football for the EMU Eagles. Zach has had to pay his own way through school. Not only does he keep up his academics and play Division I football, he also works multiple jobs just to pay his bills. While many players are on scholarship, Zach is not one of them. In fact, last fall Zack sold plasma to get the needed money. The football coach asked the NCAA for an exemption for one extra scholarship this year for Zach, but he was denied.

Then a few weeks ago a teammate, Brian Dooley, asked the coach if there was any way he could give his scholarship to Zack. He had already talked it over with his parents and they agreed it was the right thing to do.

In the next team meeting, Brian stood up and presented Zack with the scholarship as the entire team cheered and surrounded the duo.

Two Thoughts:

1. Your struggles will not last forever! 2 Cor. 4:17 says, "For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison,"

2. God can do whatever He wants, however He wants, whenever He wants and wherever He wants. And He can use whoever He wants to accomplish His purposes.

And you have been called according to His purpose, so, hang in there!

-Terry
