Preaching: Paul Holdren

“Christian Unity”

Ephesians 4: 1-6

VISITING?

We’re glad you’ve joined us today as we speak to God in our prayers and our praise, and as we listen together as He speaks to us through His Word, the Bible. If this is your first time here, we extend to you a warm welcome. We are thankful that you chosen to visit with us this morning.

At the conclusion of the service if you have any questions about our church or about becoming a Christian, please speak to our minister or with one of the elders who will be available at the rear of the auditorium.

Thank you for visiting and we hope you will feel welcome enough to come again.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Please consider giving of your time--just one hour a month--to help a weary parent's worship be a little less distracted. Let the fruit of the Spirit shine through you with a little patience, kindness, gentleness . . . and your current volunteer clearances that are required to work with children. See Amy McCumsey and link in church email to sign up and help.

Inspiration is all around us. I find it at my bus stop. Most mornings, I observe a woman crossing a busy street using a walker. It takes her a while, but she gets there. Sometimes, she holds up traffic, which some people might find annoying. For me, I admire her resolve and determination, despite the discomfort she must be feeling. Even with her physical limitations, it doesn't stop her. It's a reminder about physical perseverance.

Spiritual perseverance is important to us all. James 1:12 says, “Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him.” Don’t let your limitations stop you. Keep the faith, your reward will be great.
